

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

VERY INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON.

The Mission to France—Who Will Fill It?

THE IMPRISONMENT OF CAPT. GIBSON

BY THE DUTCH.

Terrific Battle Among the Western Indians.

RESULT OF THE TENNESSEE ELECTION.

From Washington City.

CABINET MEETING. ILLNESS OF SECRETARY DAVIS—

THE MISSION TO FRANCE AND CONSTITUTIONAL

TO GRACE FOR MR. DIX—THE ENGLISH MOVEMENT

FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN CUBA—

THE IMPRISONMENT OF MR. GIBSON BY THE DUTCH, ETC.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW YORK HERALD.

It is understood that the importance of the mission to France is being discussed by the Secretary of State, Mr. Olney, who is continued to be ill, and that the subject of the mission to France and Constantinople would be discussed. Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the Korika affair.

You will remember that the first announcement of the mission to France was made in this correspondence. Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the

Korika affair.

There is reason to believe that the secret arrangement with England has not yet been made. The mission to France is being discussed by the Secretary of State, Mr. Olney, who is continuing to be ill, and that the subject of the mission to France and Constantinople would be discussed. Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the Korika affair.

There is reason to believe that the secret

arrangement with England has not yet been made. The mission to France is being discussed by the Secretary of State, Mr.

Olney, who is continuing to be ill, and that the subject of the mission to France

and Constantinople would be discussed.

Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit

Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the Korika affair.

There is reason to believe that the secret

arrangement with England has not yet been

made. The mission to France is being discussed by the Secretary of State, Mr.

Olney, who is continuing to be ill, and

that the subject of the mission to France

and Constantinople would be discussed.

Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit

Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the

Korika affair.

There is reason to believe that the secret

arrangement with England has not yet been

made. The mission to France is being discussed by the Secretary of State, Mr.

Olney, who is continuing to be ill, and

that the subject of the mission to France

and Constantinople would be discussed.

Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit

Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the

Korika affair.

There is reason to believe that the secret

arrangement with England has not yet been

made. The mission to France is being discussed by the Secretary of State, Mr.

Olney, who is continuing to be ill, and

that the subject of the mission to France

and Constantinople would be discussed.

Mr. Olney is also preparing to submit

Mr. Olney's despatch relative to the

Korika affair.

There is reason to believe that the secret

arrangement with England has not yet been Yellow Fever in New Orleans.

From the New Orleans Bulletin, August 13.

The complete return of the epidemic has been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

been impossible, and the epidemic has

AID TO NEW ORLEANS.

The following letter was sent by President Pierce to the meeting which was held in Washington on the 13th inst. for the purpose of raising funds to aid the epidemic in New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, August 13, 1853.

My Dear Sir—I am gratified to see in this morning's paper the report of the meeting of the citizens of this city to make arrangements for a contribution for the aid of the sufferers in New Orleans.

I herewith enclose a check for $50, which I wish you to send to any fund that may be raised for the relief of the sufferers.

Yours friend and servant,

FRANK PIERCE.

INTERESTING FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Very Late from Buenos Ayres and Montevideo.

The bark Crisis, Capt. Wiley, arrived yesterday from Montevideo, where she sailed on the 5th inst.

We learn that the blockade had been going over to the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with various important results. Trade was as previous to the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Fighting still continued between the troops, with

various important results. Trade was as previous to

the outbreak of the war. A day or two later, the

entire fleet of Uruguay, under Com. Coe, going over to

the inhabitants of the city on the 20th June.

The British Packet of the 25th, in speaking of the

affair, says—

Guards are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, this afternoon, at two o'clock, when his remains will be interred in Greenwood Cemetery for interment.

On Sunday morning, August 14, after a short illness, Thomas Briggs, of the 36th Regt. N.Y. Inf., died at his residence, at No. 10, West 10th St., at 11 A.M., aged 49 years.

He was a native of New York, and was a member of the regiment, and was a member of the

regiment, and was a member of the

regiment, and was a member of the

regiment, and was a member of the

regiment, and was a member of the

regiment, and was a member of the regiment, and was a